Standard of Service - Dr Phil Joyce, Online Philosophy Tutor

I’m a freelance, private philosophy tutor; so the success of my private students is my sole concern.

I endeavour to:

1. acknowledge students’ emails immediately on receipt;
2. indicate, on receipt of work for marking, when it will likely be returned;
3. mark and grade work against relevant assessment objectives and marking schemes;
4. provide an up-to-date online diary giving my availability for tutorials.

Prospective students should be aware that I very occasionally succumb to a recurrent illness. At those times I concentrate on my own philosophical research and temporarily suspend my teaching services.
